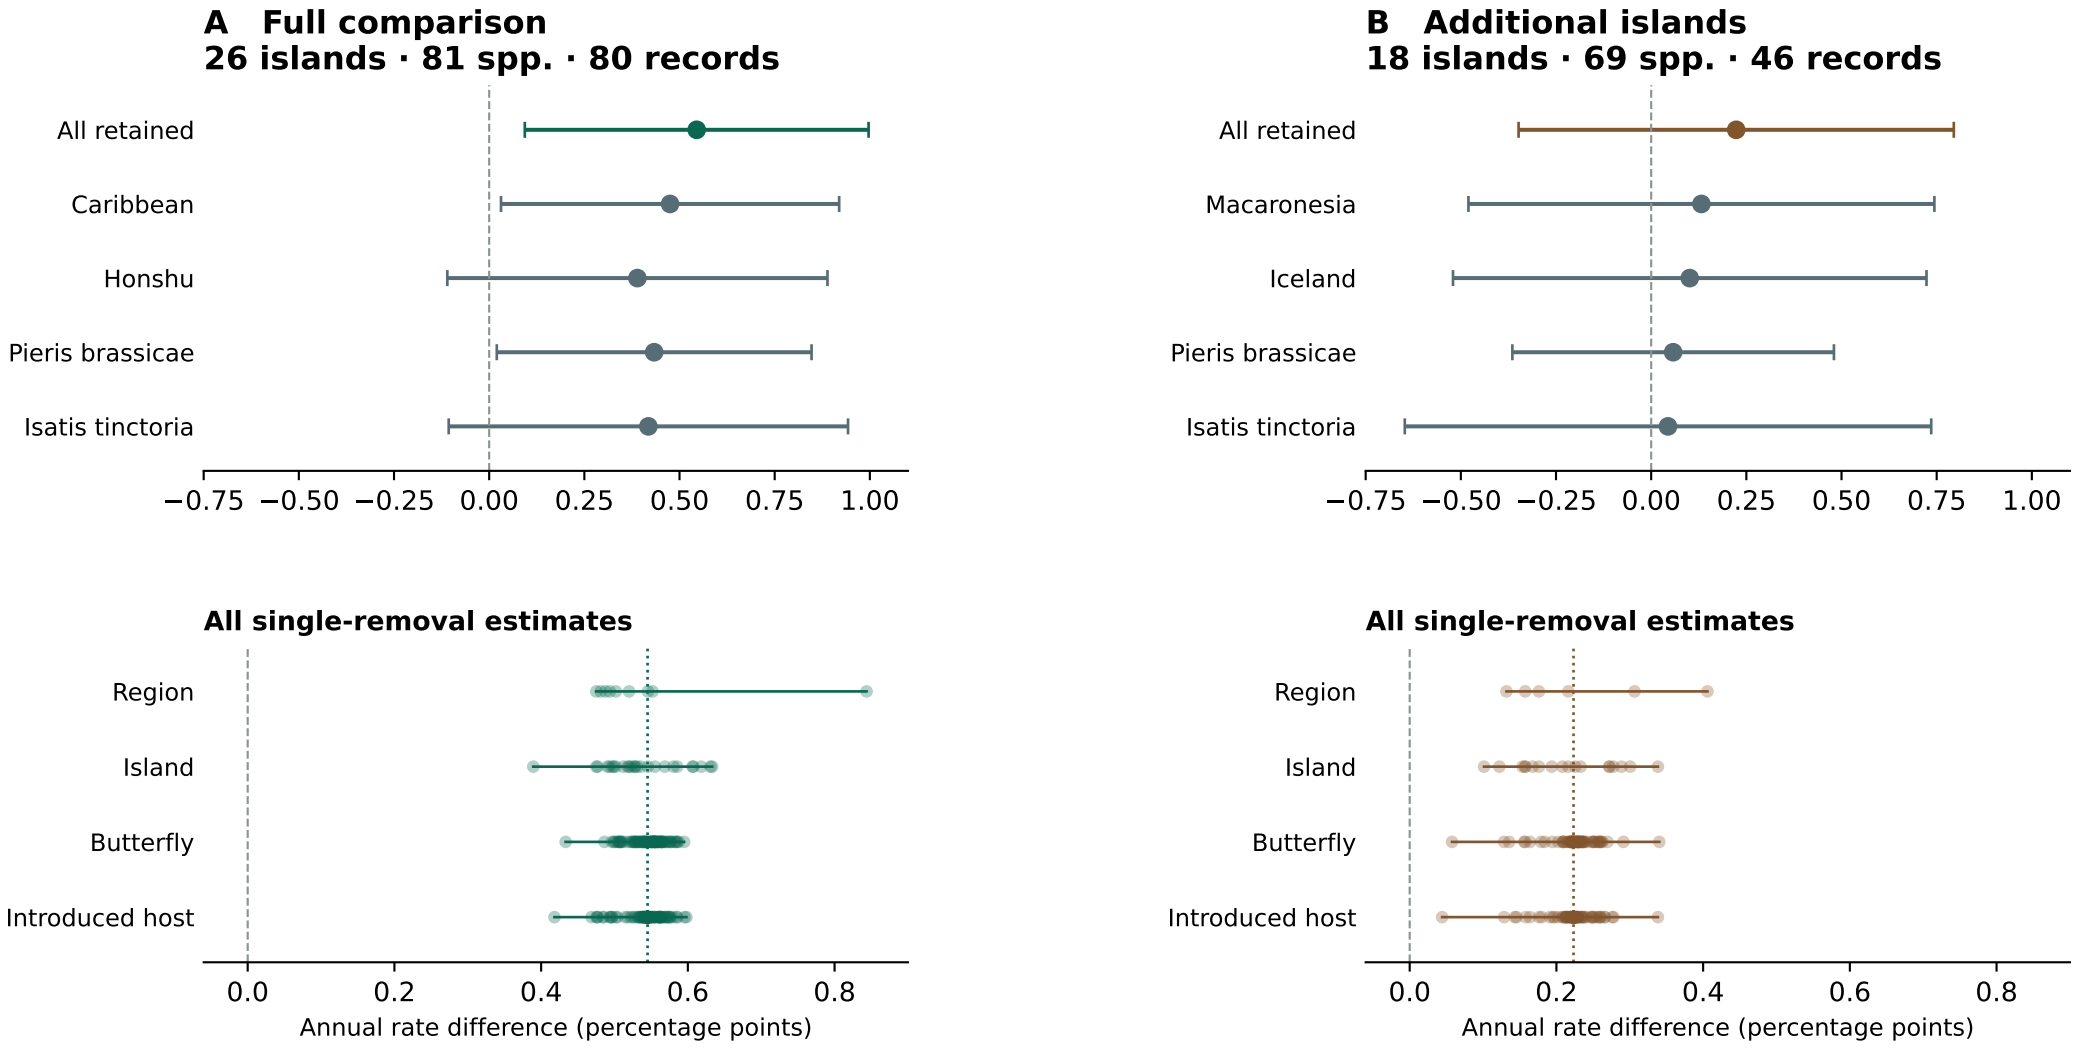
Which islands, butterflies and introduced hosts influence the rate difference?

Top: full estimate and the single removal in each category giving the smallest estimate; bars show 95% intervals.



Bottom: each dot is a refitted estimate; the dotted line marks the full estimate. Overlapping dots can represent several removals.

Both minus native only, adjusted for distance, year, island and butterfly. Host removal changes recorded status only where no other introduced host remains.